The background of the entire page is a repeating pattern of stylized, fan-shaped flowers. Each flower has a central stem with many thin, radiating lines ending in small, dark, hook-like tips. The flowers are rendered in various colors: grey, magenta, and lime green. Some flowers are solid colors, while others have a textured, stippled appearance. The pattern is set against a light cream background.

Founded by Arthur Sanderson in 1860, Sanderson is an internationally renowned brand in the field of interior design and decorating. Granted a Royal Warrant in 1923, Sanderson still supplies fabrics, paint and wall coverings to HM Queen Elizabeth II and various British royal palaces. Its often quintessentially English fabric, wallpaper and paint collections offer classic and contemporary products comprising exceptional quality and value for money.
